6 March 2019

Deadline:

Each year, AnitaB.org ^[4] offers scholarships that enable undergraduate, graduate students and faculty from all over the world to attend Grace Hopper Celebration (GHC), the world's largest gathering of women technologists. We are expecting 25,000 attendees this October in Orlando, FL. Check out the opportunities we have available to be a Scholar or Scholarship Reviewer.

GHC Scholarship for College Students and Faculty ^[5]

GHC scholarships provide funds for undergraduate students, graduate students, and faculty to attend the three-day celebration. In 2018, over 850 Scholars attended GHC where they gained access to career and academic workshops, networking opportunities, and memories that will last a lifetime. GHC 19 Scholarship applications close March 6.

Scholarship Review Committee ^[6]

Each committee member reviews, on average, 15 applications online, and provides ratings and comments to help the committee co-chairs make decisions on applicants. Students are ineligible to be reviewers, but we encourage eligible students to apply for the scholarship.
