Se espera que el Bosque estatal de Maricao proporcione una conexión de desplazamiento para la cotorra a través de otras áreas boscosas como el Bosque Estatal de Susúa y el Bosque Estatal de Guilarte. (Suministrada / DRNA)

A team composed of members from state and federal agencies and biologists, freed 31 Puerto Rican Parrots in the Maricao State Forest with the objective that they reproduce in the wild. This is part of the initiative focused on increasing the parrot population in order to remove it from the list of endangered species.
