

I'm Jordan Melendez and I am currently obtaining a bachelor's in business administration with a concentration in management at the UPR of Cayey. This being my first year I want to get indulged in my interest to the fullest, those interest are composed of business, literature, social sciences and more. Once I finish my university experience, I plan to form my very own gaming corporation.