

ABEL RODRIGUEZ DEL VALLE

PMB 104 BOX 2500 TOA BAJA, PR 00951 • Cell. 1 (787) 514-5165

Permanent Resident

Abelrdelvalle78@gmail.com

Continue contributing my knowledge and experiences in meteorology for the purpose of safeguarding live and alert in situations that warrant it. Continue developing skills in the branch of science with a focus on meteorology and give to another my knowledge.

SUMMARY

Meteorological Institute - April 9, 2003 – March 2022

Twenty years experience Meteorologist, forecast, data meteorological station reception, conferences. Working 24 hours day, night and overnights, work in bad weather conditions in Hurricane Charley august 2004, Wilma October 2005, Ike September 2008, Irma September 2017, and Havana Tornado January 2019.

EDUCATION

HAVANA UNIVERSITY GEOGRAPHY 1997-2001

Studies in Geography

Change to Meteorological Institute in April 2003

METEOROLOGICAL INSTITUTE

Graduate Superior Meteorological Technician July 7, 2007

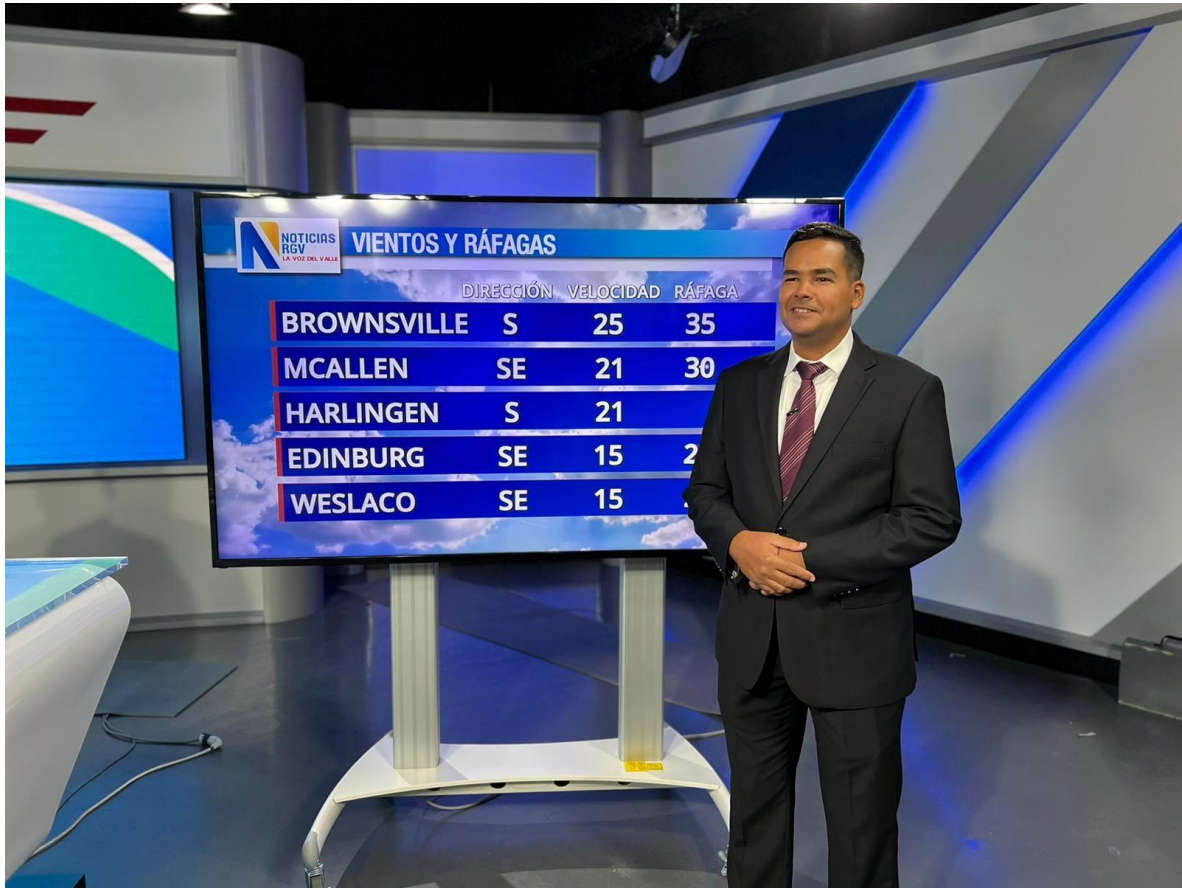

Master's degree curse in satellite imagery 2007-2008

CONFERENCES, RESEARCH AND AWARDS

- Hurricane conferences 2005, 2017 and 2021
- Astronomy conference 2021
- Award in November 2021 by Conference Hurricanes Rapid Intensification
- Award Diploma by Conference Hurricane Impact in the cities
- Diploma by Conference Solar Eclipses and Weather
- Conference too in the Meteorological society of Havana, Cuba

COMPUTER SKILLS

Make Conferences with photoshops internet skills research data meteorology, computer models, forecasting, satellite imagery archives analysis for investigations, data hurricanes analysis, pressure, rain, wind, tracks, damage impact.

Meteorologist in TV, Noticias RGV, Weslaco, Texas from March to June 2023, finish with Recommendation letter by my last boss Chief Meteorologist Tim Smith and come back to Puerto Rico in July and looking for job.