Science and art come together in the artwork displayed outside the NEB laboratory facility in Ipswich, MA, USA. Building artwork created by Nicole Gordon. Sculpture by Dale Rogers.

What is your PASSION?

New England Biolabs® is pleased to announce our 2016 Passion In Science Awards™, recognizing those within the scientific community working to make a difference in the world.

This is the chance to recognize the “unsung heroes” in the laboratory, who are dedicated to their cause. Through July 31st, 2016, we invite you to nominate yourself or a colleague for one of the four award categories:

The SCIENTIFIC MENTORSHIP AND ADVOCACY AWARD™

Recognizing scientists whose passion for their field motivates them to educate others and spread that passion within the scientific community

The HUMANITARIAN DUTY AWARD™

Recognizing scientists who are using science to ease the hardships of others

The ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP AWARD™

Recognizing scientists who are working to preserve our natural resources or reduce waste either in the lab and outside of it

The ARTS AND CREATIVITY AWARD™

Recognizing scientists who are creating novel ways to demonstrate and display the powerful and extraordinary intersections between art and science

Award winners will be our guests at a celebration at the NEB® campus in Ipswich MA, USA and will receive either a $1,000 donation to the charity of their choice, or a $1,000 travel grant to a scientific conference (terms and conditions apply). Remember, no act is too big or too small. Applications will only be accepted through July 31st, 2016, so apply today!
